SMALL & MIGHTY STAFF
Operates with only 3 part-time staff

MONEY SMART
Modest annual budget of $130,000

STUDENT RESULTS: 250 SERVED

WORK
82 acquired better job skills
15 got a job or a better job

HOME
141 achieved personal goals
61 became more involved in their children’s education
43 learned better consumer skills
43 gained wellness & healthy lifestyle information
16 obtained driver’s licenses

COMMUNITY
61 became more involved in their community
4 voted for the first time

“Im why literacy matters.”
~ Angela Montoya, new U.S. citizen & Literacy Volunteers student

“I am why literacy matters.”
~ Angela Montoya, new U.S. citizen & Literacy Volunteers student

MONEY
SMART
Modest annual budget of $130,000

VOLUNTEERS
388 volunteers donated 22,630 hours
A $482,245 value to the community

Follow us year-round on social media:
facebook.com/LVBangor;
twitter.com/LitVolBangor or on the web at LVBangor.org.

This year:

- A pilot program will serve inmates at Penobscot Jail later this year.
- We've doubled our office space through a partnership with Eastern Maine Community College.
- We've begun serving Hancock County through a partnership with Literacy Volunteers.
- We're partnering with Eastern Maine Medical Center in a literacy initiative to help everyone live healthier lives.
- Eastern Maine Community College has doubled our office space. Thank you so much!

Exciting news:

- Eastern Maine Medical Center has invested in our programming.
- Every dollar you donate goes into our programming.
- Responsible stewards of your hard-earned investment.
- Last year, we spent less than budgeted. Please know that we are very proud of our budget restraints and staff.

"Sometimes I have to pinch myself."

"My dream is coming true," she says.

With your help, adults like Angela Montoya are changing their lives.

With your help, adults like Angela Montoya are changing their lives.

Thank you for making literacy matter in our community.

Angela was a Colombian immigrant with two children, minimal English, and few job skills. With Literacy Volunteers, she is becoming a successful health care professional and energetic contributor to our community.

Sometimes I have to pinch myself.

"My dream is coming true," she says.

With your help, adults like Angela Montoya are changing their lives.

Thank you for making literacy matter in our community.