January 2019

Do you love children's books, tea parties, and being creative? Then consider decorating and hosting a table using a children's book as its theme at the 2019 Literacy Tea. Proceeds benefit adult and family literacy programs with Literacy Volunteers of Bangor and are part of our 50th Anniversary celebrations!

The Literacy Tea has a limited number of tables available. Those who register early get a better chance to have their book choice represented at their table. Here are some other details for Table Designers to consider when hosting a table:

- 1) Register by February 28th. First come, first serve on book selection.
- 2) A rectangular table that seats 8 will be provided.
- 3) Come to John Bapst High School between 1- 2:30 p.m. that day to decorate your table according to the book's theme.
- 4) Paper & plastic products (table cloths, plates, cups, napkins) are provided. You can certainly bring your own.
- 5) All other materials and equipment are the Designer's responsibility.
- 6) Provide a theme-based favor for each person at your table.
- 7) There is no charge to enter a table; it includes one (1) ticket.
- 8) Share with your friends! They can buy seats at your table.

During the Tea Party attendees will also enjoy refreshments, viewing other tables, and a reading from Maine children's author, Liza Gardner Walsh. Liza will be performing her book Do Fairies Bring the Spring? Her books will be available for purchase and signing.

Please help our community celebrate reading for all the ages and join us as a Table Designer or participant.
